

Awards categories and submission criteria (2019)

Health Outcomes	Patient Experience	Research	Innovation	Leadership	Equity	Primary and Community care	CEO Outstanding Contribution Award	Young Employee of the year	Professional Development Fund for Māori Health
Submission Criteria
For teams or individuals who have improved care, patient safety or health outcomes for WDHB population. These improvements can be large system improvements or localised improvements.	For teams or individuals to recognise and reward innovative initiatives which aim to understand and directly improve the experience of our patients and their whānau.	For teams or individuals who have undertaken original cutting-edge research in the last year. Nominations for this category will be selected from entrants to the April 2019 Research Symposium.	For teams or individuals who have implemented creative, innovative ideas that have improved health outcomes or the experience of patients, whānau or staff.	For individuals who demonstrate compassionate leadership, courage, exemplary team building and our organisational values.	For a project, person or team that has overcome inequities in access, outcomes and experience by engaging with communities and creating or strengthening strategic partnerships,	For healthcare organisations, teams or individuals who have implemented innovative solutions to provide care closer to home and improve access, outcomes and well-being in the community.	The CEO award will be presented to the project person or team who has made an outstanding contribution to the organisation, improved health outcomes or patient experience.	To acknowledge a young person (under the age of 30) who has made an outstanding contribution to our organisation or community, through the outcomes they have achieved.	Four awards for individuals who have received Professional Development Fund grants that contribute to Māori health <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. CEO's choice for grants over $3000 2. Kaupapa Māori award (by Māori, for Māori) 3. Open award for contribution to Māori health 4. Open award for contribution to Māori health

Awards categories and submission criteria (2019)

Submission questions:

1. What were you trying to achieve?

Outline the importance or aim of your work

2. What did you do?

Outline the completed activities.

3. How did you involve people?

Describe the different people impacted by your work and the ways that you included them.

4. Did you make a difference?

Outline the results achieved. Include any relevant data / graphs / feedback showing improvements.

5. How does your work demonstrate our values?

Describe how your submission shows our organisational values in practice

6. Where to from here?

Outline next steps, how is your work sustainable, scalable. What lessons did you learn or what might you do differently next time.

- Contact
- Category
- Abstract to be no more than 150 words